PRINCE AHMED'S FINE RACE

DEFEATS HYPERION II. AND COLLOQUY IN A FAST-RUN THREE-QUARTERS.

Injury Inflicts a Surprise-Bellwether Takes a Race -E. T. Shipp Lucky in Beating Rustle-Many Havana Pilgrims Departing.

New Orleans, La., March 6 .- Jockey J. W. Murphy, who is under contract to J. W. Burttschell, and who was rated as one of the most promising lightweight riders in the saddle here, was given an indefinite suspension by the judges this afternoon and in all probability it will be some time before they will remove the ban. His punishment was brought about by his poor effort while astride Ida May in the second race, won by Bellwether. disregarded riding instructions by failure to allow the filly to go to the front after the start, and in the stretch run his bluff at riding hard was only too apparent. Owner J. C. Milam made no secret that he thought Ida May would win, and gave his opinion that the filly would run the six furlongs in 1:13 if she was forced out. He was astounded poor performance and joined the majority in laying the blame on the rider. The judges promptly suspended the rider and are looking further into the It is barely possible that others may be concted with the reason for Ida May's poor showing. Bellwether, the winner, was supported at an un-warranted liberal price and made good without much Prince Ahmed again showed good form by winning the six furlong handicap, which featured the card, in tast time from a speedy band of racers. He was skillfully ridden by Notter and stood the final drive unflinchingly. Hyperion II., which finished second, might have won but for being away in a tangle and suffering from early interference Polly Prim bumped him soon after the start. Colloguy went at top speed for a half-mile, but tired thereafter and had to be hard ridden to save third place from the fast-coming Polly Prim.

A spirited finish marked the sixth, won by Royal Onyx from Merrick, the favorite. Merrick was the leader up to the last sixteenth, when Royal Onyx joined him and they fought it out. There were some who thought that Royal Onyx had fouled Mer rick, but Notter did not make any complaint.

Injury, which Rosen pulled up shortly after the start in the previous race, was hustled along into a long lead soon after the start in the opening race and won all the way from The Slicker. Miss Hapsburg, which was a starter, tripped soon after the start when a dog ran across her path. Skirvin, her rider, was badly shaken up by his tumble.

E. T. Shipp was lucky in finishing in front in E. T. Shipp was lucky in finishing in front in the third race as Rustle was clearly the best, and, good colt, Prospector. Details: but for suffering from repeated interference, would have won by a big margin.

W. H. Fizer attempted a big betting coup in the sixth race with Morales and would have accomplished it but for the colt falling lame after going a half. The mishap allowed Beatrice K. to go on and win handily from Bertmont. The latter, in a place from Morales.

In the closing race St. Bellane won in game fash ion, as he fell lame during the stretch run and pulled up limping.

Several of the layers who have been operating here this winter, will try their fortune in Cuba and will leave tomorrow for Havana to be in at endance at the opening of the new track there. Among those who have signified their intention of making book at the Cuban capital are J. Sheehan, Rouse, Jerry Howard and William Bern hart. The latter purchased from Burlew & O'Neill the horses Gaea, Molly Stark and McGregor, which will be shipped tomorrow to Havana.

New interest in the local Derbys was aroused this morning when Pinkola, carrying about 100 pounds, worked a mile over the City Park track in a fraction less that 1:41, which was considered by good horsemen to be a capital move. Burlew. on hearing of the work, merely remarked: "I will bet $1,000 that Chapultepec is in front of Pinkola in every furlong." He denied having had any offer from Paul J. Rainey for the transfer of Cha-

C. Fox, who has been spending the winter here will return to New York tomorrow

The steamer Chalmette, which leaves tomorrow for Havana, will have aboard about 150 race fol-Among the passengers listed are White, Joe McLennan and James Milton. This trie will act in an official capacity at the new track.

J. C. Cahn is said to have a speedy home-bred youngster in George C. Dillon, a two-year-old gelding by Counter Tenor-Brigand Queen, will make his first start at New Orleans be fore the close of the season.

TURF AND FIELD CLUB OFFICIALS ELECTED.

New York, March 6 .- At the annual meeting of the members of the Turf and Field Club yesterday Perry Belmont was elected president; General Brayton Ives, vice-president; John E. Cowdin, treasurer: E. C. La Montague, secretary; H. A. Buck, assistant secreatry.

The following were elected members of the club: Messrs. Harold H. Weekes, Gordon Knox Bell, Ford Huntington and James A. McCrea.

HORSES IN THIS YEAR'S EPSOM DERBY. DEL CRUZADOS DISQUALIFIED FOR FOUL.

Complete List of All Eligibles Arranged in Groups Under Their Trainers' Names

Greatest of all races run each year is the world famous Epsom Derby. Annually in England it is an impressive event to look forward to and date To view it parliament adjourns and from king to costermonger a countless throng gathers to acclaim its decision. In no way does the Derby of 1908 lack its customary importance, and every loyal Briton hopes that King Edward's big colt, Perrier, will gallop away with its hor In an exhaustive review of the race a recent edition the Sportsman says:

"Now that there has been a certain amount of preliminary wagering on the Derby, it will be of general interest to give a table showing by whom and where the large number of horses still in the chief race of the coming season under Jockey Club rules are trained. All told, the horses not struck out number 187, but of these nine cannot run, being geldings, and eight others are trained in the United States, and therefore highly improbable runners. This leaves us with 170, and of these 142 are in public English training stables, ten trained privately, two in Ireland, and no fewer than sixteen in France.

"As fortune is supposed, as a rule, to be on the side of the big battalions, it may be advisable to first take a glance at the stables most numerously represented. Three trainers have each no fewer than eight aspirants to the fame attaching to a winner. Almost needless to say that included in the three are W. Waugh, the present master of the famous Kingsclere establishment, and P. P. Gilpin. The latter won his first Derby two years ago with Spearmint, and some people think that if Galvani had been at his best he would scored a second victory for Clarehaven las The third trainer having eight Derby candi dates in his care is A. Taylor. Neither W. Waugh nor Taylor has as yet experienced the pleasure of winning a Derby, but only one horse can win it each season, and both trainers have already had the felicity of saddling a St. Leger winner. Another trainer with a biggish Derby string is G. Blackwell, who has seven in his charge at Newmarket, where Mr. G. Lambton-who last week returned to Newmarket from the Mediterranean seaboard in order to supervise active operations—is also strongly represented, six of his three-year-olds being in the chief Epsom classic. When Colonel Hall Walker's horses come from the north to Russley H. S. Persse will likewise have six Derby horses to train. At Newmarket again R. Marsh is responsible for five, including the king's colt, Perrier, and R. Sherwood, J. Watson, and T Waugh for four each. Seven trainers have three Derby candidates a piece in their stables, and among those with only one or two can be mentioned Major Edwards, one of whose pair, Mountain Apple, has yet to taste defeat, and

Impedes Inclement Near the Finish of the Se Race and the Favorite Given First Place.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 6.-The disqualifying of 'Lucky' Baldwin's Del Cruzados today in the ond race was just and so palpably so that the judge hoisted Inclement's number without a moment's hesitation. McBride on Del Cruzados pulled across in front of Inclement when seventy-five yards from the line, thereby causing Shilling on the latter to pull up. The decision was greeted with loud ap-plause from the grandstand, as it gave first place to the favorite. The old roan gelding, Bill Mayham, came back to the races today and repeated his performance of Tuesday by again taking the first race in a canter. Anna May ran in second place throughout and La Chata finished an easy third. The others never were serious contenders.

The first disqualification of the season occurred following the running of the second race when Del Cruzados palpably fouled Inclement by crossing in front of him in the last sixteenth. Shilling promptly lodged a claim of foul which the judges allowed and disqualified the Baldwin youngster, Melton Cloth being given second place and Bell of Brass third. The horses behind the first four finished in two close up bunches, heads separating them as they passed the judges.

Bemay won the third race by a narrow margin from Pal in a hard drive. Laudable finished fast and took third place from Sun Mark in the last stride.

The long-distance race, which featured the card, went to Edwin T. Fryer after wearing down the pacemaker, Chalfonte, in the last few strides. L. Widrig was a contender to the stretch, where he tired badly.

Shilling again showed his skill in bringing Cotil-Hon to the front in the stretch run and winning with ease over the tiring Sainrida.

Bribery was an odds-on favorite and had Shilling up, but tired in the stretch after setting the pace, allowing Toller to win going away. William Walker has about decided to return to Oakland Sunday with his horses and probably will not race at this track again this winter.

Eugene Hildebrand, the former jockey, has notified the management that he will arrive tomorrow with a number of horses which will be raced here by him during the rest of the meeting

Jockey Shilling had a field day in winning four out of six mounts. His mounts were generously supported throughout, and the bookmakers fared

WALDECK HORSES AND FARM TO BE SOLD.

Lexington, Ky., March 6.-Karl Jungbluth has ed the disposal of Waldeck Stud and of his breeding farm, which is located near Louisville. Manager Walter Hopkins came here today and closed a deal with W. J. Treacy, of the Kentucky Sales Company, to sell twenty-two broodmares and ten yearling thoroughbreds by auction in this city Monday, April 13. The farm, which embraces 500 acres, will be sold as soon as a purchaser can be obtained. "Mr. Jungbluth has contracted for another five years with McAndrews & Forbes," said Mr. Hopkins 'and so much of his time is to be spent abroad that he is compelled to give up his horses and his farm. He will sail from New York for Smyrna tomorrow to be gone three months."

The mares to be sold are as follows: Alverdee Amyntas, Augusta III., Blue Devils, Desayuno, Dona Sol, Emily O., Eugenia Wickes, Euphrasia, Fun and Folly, Golden Rose, Miss Modish, Ostra, Satellite II., Semper Fidele, Souffle, Sub Rosa, Taluca, Temptress, Victoria IV., Voltario (dam of The Picket), and Witch of Endor.

These mares are in foal to Peep o'Day, Monsieur de L'Orme, Pirate of Penzance, Lackford, Kingston, Sempronius, Alvescot, St. Gatien, Nasturtium Woolsthorpe, Stalwart, Yorkshire Lad, Ingoldsby, Ethelbert and Alloway.

Euphrasia foaled a chestnut colt by Cesarion last night. The yearlings to be sold are as follows:

Bay filly, by Bel Demonio-Alverdee; bay filly, by Bowling Brook-Augusta III.; chestnut filly, by Handsel-Desayuno; bay colt, by Handsel-Emily Sempronius-Eugenia chestnut colt. by Allan-a-Dale-Euphrasia; bay filly, by Mazagan-Miss Modish; bay colt, by Alvescot-Satellite II.; bay colt, by Handsel-Semper Fidele; bay filly, by Nasturtium-Souffle.

JACK JOYNER TO TRAIN WHITNEY HORSES.

New York, March 6 .- Andrew J. Joyner, who is training one division of the stable of August Belmont, as well as his own horses, at Sheepshead Bay, will succeed the late John W. Rogers as the trainer of the Harry Payne Whitney stable this season. Mr. Whitney pade the announcement today that Joyner had been offered the position and had accepted it.

WOULD LIMIT RACING IN ONTARIO.

Toronto, Ont., March 6 .- A bill has been introduced in the provincial legislature in session here to limit the running of race meetings to sixteen days at any one track during a year.

HIS SUPERIOR RIDING LANDS MITRE WIN-NER WHEN THE RACE SEEMED LOST.

Little Jane Takes the Race for Two-Year-Olds-Eudora Wins After Many Failures-Santa Anita Horses Moving to Oakland.

Oakland, Cal., March 6 .- Jockey Willie Knapp cored a sensational victory on Mitre in the closis race at Oakland today after an exhibition of patient perseverance and skill unequalled on the local race track this winter. Rejuvenated old Kenilworth all but lost his opponents, including Mitre, at the start and it required horsemanship of the highest order to pilot the favorite to victory.

The card, despite its lack of stake features was a good and varied one and contained at least two attractive races in which superior class horses were engaged. This applies particularly to the two-year-old race in which a quintette of highly tried juvenile stars in Little Jane, Seattle, Ocean Maid, Alice Collins and Carrie Thatcher tried conclusions. As is usual in these affairs, success went This time it was with the speediest beginner. Little Jane. At a longer distance than today's journey of three and a half furlongs, both Seattle and Ocean Maid would have beaten her. Barney Schreiber, the owner of Seattle, believes the big daughter of Sir Hercules and Ohio Belle to be the very best filly he has ever bred or raced. other race of importance was captured by Cigar-lighter, the 7 to 10 choice.

The Myers—Schaffer combination launched one of their long-deferred good things in Eudora in the fifth race.

Favorites fared badly in the first half of the card. The heavy and deceptive going was chiefly esponsible for whatever form reversals cropped up during the afternoon.

The fine weather brought out an augmented attendance to the course. The exodus of horses and horsemen from Santa Anita has begun. Barney Schreiber unloaded six racers from there today, including Cull Holland, one of the prominent candidates for the Undine Stakes tomorro

Early Tide in the Derby.

Jockey Horner will leave for New York tomorrow. Miller will have mounts on the following horses to-norrow: Belmere, Alsatian, Blameless and Dorado. Gilbert will ride Tavora, Bill Eaton, Taunt and

OFFICIAL STATEMENT OF DENVER MEETING.

In a communication received from G. A. Wahlreen, secretary and general manager of the Denver-Overland Jockey Club, he outlines the prospects of the spring and fall meetings which the club will hold this year as follows:

"Our meeting will start June 13, running thirtyone days, closing July 18. We will raise all our stakes and overnight purses. Instead of $200 and upward as heretofore, the purses will be $300 and ward: the Derby $2.00 the other feature races from $600 to $1,000. will have six running races each day. The first two weeks will have one harness race also. Our starter will be Mr. Ed Tribe, who has been doing excellent work for us the past three years. are increasing the size of our betting ring very materially and also building some 200 new stables. We are spending $300,000 on our grounds this fall which will run for one week, beginning September 7. Many of the horsemen can summer here. We will probably run the fall meeting a week or so beyond the scheduled time of the fair. There will be a number of conventions here during our race meeting, such as the National Democratic Convention, which will undoubtedly increase average attendance. Open ring will prevail as heretofore. All indications point to a still better meeting that that of last year, which was far ahead of anything of previous seasons."

LEXINGTON STICKS TO SELECTED DATES.

Lexington, Ky., March 6 .- At a meeting of the directors of the Kentucky Association today, J. N. Camden, Jr., and W. R. Letcher were re-elected president and secretary respectively. On the subect of spring dates it was the sense of the meeting that Lexington should not relinquish her position and that there should be ten days racing here beginning April 22 and ending May 2. expressed a desire to open May 2, but the directors here do not think they should give up one of the two Saturdays to permit this. The matter was finally placed in the hands of the executive committee, which is instructed to meet with representatives of the Louisville and Latonia tracks and agree upon a schedule which the State Racing Comwill be asked to sanction. So it is now probable that the Kentucky Derby will be run on Monday, May 4. Colonel Milton Young has sold the two-year-old bay colt To and Fro, by Cameron-Bandy, to F. C. Moshier, of Galesburg.

Another foal by Adam arrived last night. It is a chestnut colt, out of H. B. Duryea's seven-yearold chestnut mare, Armenia, by Meddler-Urania, at Elliott C. Cowdin's Kirklevington Stud.

Winner—B. f, by Canopus—Princess, by Cheviot (trained by G. Frawley).

Went to post at 2:09. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.
Little Jane outbroke and ontpaced her opposition and finished gamely, but probably was lucky. Seattle broke slowly, but maintained nearest and persistent pursuit of the pacemaker and was wearing the latter down at the end. Ocean Maid, a slow beginner and apparently outpaced for the first quarter, closed a big gap in the stretch and was best. Alice Collins tired after three furlongs of early forward contention.
Carrie Thatcher, also in close pursuit to the stretch, tired and probably disliked the going.

Overweights—Little Jane, 1 pound.

Winner—B. g, by Del Paso II.—Mary Kinsella (trained by T. P. Hyland).

Went to post at 2:33. At post 1 minute. Start good for all but Emma G. Won easily; second and third driving. Cuernavaca forced the pace from the start and drew out fast right at the end. Hal, away poorly, closed up rapidly into a fast going second. Ormuz broke slowly, but quickly established a small lead and held sway for five furlongs, then tired in a game third. Billy Myer, away poorly and outpaced for the first half, made a wide stretch turn and finished with a belated rush. Bannatyne closed an early gap and was in forward contention for the first half. Jeremiah showed early speed. Emma G. was virtually left. The winner was entered for $600; no bid.

Winner—B. g, by Ornament—Stately (trained by J. Stern).

Went to post at 3:53. At post 3 minutes. Start very bad. Won easily; second and third driving. Mitre, after early pursuit of the pacemaker, gradually overhauled and passed him and drew out decisively at the end. Freesias, away very badly, closed an immense gap into a fast going second. Carthaginian, from a bad start, loomed up menacingly on the last turn and was a game third. Alice Cary closed up and set the pace to the stretch, but tired and was palpably short. Callis finished well up.

Overweights—Callis, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. c, by Peep o'Day—Raindrop (trained by J. E. Cushing).

Went to post at 2:20. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily: second and third driving. Del Cruzados overhauled Inclement in the final sixteenth and responded gamely to punishment but, when seventy-five yards out, crossed in front of Inclement, palpably fouling him and was promptly disqualified. Inclement ran a good race, finished resolutely under the whip and would have been much closer up but for the interference. Melton Cloth finished fast under punishment. Bell of Brass closed a gap and finished with a rush. Wm. F. Herron was knocked back. Silk Hose got off badly.

Winner—Br. f, by Albert—Misery II. (trained by W. D. Millard).

Went to post at 2:46. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Bemay, always within striking distance of the leaders, moved up gradually in the final quarter and, showing gameness under punishment, outstayed Pal. The latter ran into what appeared a winning lead on the home turn, but tired in the last few strides under keen urging. Laudable was always prominent and tired only in the last sixteenth. Sun Mark finished fast under the whip. Lonia was going well at the end. Rustling Silk set the pace for three-quarters, but failed to stay. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Went to post at 3:08. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Edwin T. Fryer was held in reserve until after entering the stretch, where he moved up on equal terms with Chalfonte and, after an early stretch struggle, held him safe in the closing drive. Chalfonte showed the most speed almost throughout and stood the last eighth drive gamely, but was not good enough. L. C. Widrig ran well to the stretch, but tired badly in the last eighth. Winner—Blk. h, by Brutus—Nabette (trained by M. Garrity).
Went to post at 4:08. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily: second and third driving.
Toller moved up fast after entering the stretch and easily overhauled and disposed of Bribery, winning with plenty to spare. The latter showed the most speed to the stretch, but tired badly under the whip when challenged by the winner. Instructor showed speed, but thred badly in the last hundred yards. Tattenbam finished fast under the whip. The winner was entered for $400: no bid.

Scratched—73419 Cataline, 105; 73416 Rey del Mundo, 108; 73435 Royal Ascot, 101.

Winner—Br. g, by Marchmofit II.—Sweet Danger (trained by W. A. Fuller).
Went to post at 2::20. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Injury, away fast and showing sudden improvement, took a long lead at once and, saving much ground throughout, won well in hand. The Slicker, away in a tangle, closed a big gap in the stretch run and finished gamely. Exotic, off in the lead, ran well throughout. Pinion ran a good race and was going fast at the end. Lillian Ray ran fairly well. Cunning closed a big gap. Sister Ollie was in a jam most of the way. I ady Leota suffered much from crowding. Dispute got away on the outside and had scant chance. Miss Hapsburg was tripped by a dog running out on the track soon after the start and unseated her rider. Overweights—Exotic, 3 pounds; Lady Leota, 3; Concise, 2.

73561 SECOND RACE—3-4 Mile. (43682—1:121—5—107.) $400 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances. Net value to winner $345.

Winner—Br. c, by Woolsthorpe—Favor Bells (trained by R. Shannon).

Went to post at 2:35. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Bell-wether forced the early pace, then took the lead when called on and, drawing away, won as his rider pleased. Hanbridge came from a long way back in the last quarter and finished gamely. Orphan Lad, from a slow beginning, finished fast. Ida May's race was far below her true form and Murphy only made a bluff at driving her hard in the stretch. Ben Strong showed a brief flash of speed. Oonoomoo was Scratched—73448°Miss Sain, 99.

Winner—B. g. by Ruskin II.—Caloocan (trained by W. H. Fizer).

Went to post at 3:24. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. E. T. Shipp, away fast and showing much the most speed, raced his nearest contenders into early defeat, but had to be hard ridden out to stand off Rustle. The latter, shuffled back repeatedly and forced to go wfile on the stretch turn, closed a big gap in the last furloug and would have won in a few more strides. Javotte also gained steadily and was going fast at the end. Dandy Dancer showed speed, but tired badly and swerved in the last furlong. Arrow Swift had a rough trip for the first half and finished fast. Risk, from an outside position, ran a good race. Whisk Broom tired badly in the last furlong. The winner was entered for $700; no bid.

Winner—Ch. c, by King Hanover—Ferita (trained by R. Cassady).

Went to post at 3:54. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Prince Ahmed, lucky throughout and well ridden, was saved from the early pace and, taking the lead in the stretch after saving much ground on the turn, held Hyperion II. safe in the closing drive. The latter, from a slow beginning and going wide all the way, ran a good race and finished gamely. Colloquy showed superior speed for the first half and raced Blagg into subjection, but was tiring near the end. Polly Irim closed a gap in the last quarter. Blagg tired badly after going a fast half.
